Washington, April 11.-Unofficial and unconfirmed reports that Villa is today and were given some degree of credence by officials here. The reports were represented as having come from Queretaro, Carranza's provisional capital. They were unsubstantiated by the latest dispatches to the war and state departments. The circumstantial reports of Villa's recent injury, however, and the rigors of his long and hurried flight in which he has been variously reported as being carried on a litter on the shoulders of his men or in a carriage over the rough Mexican trails, gives some color to the same minimum as last night.
